Dear Mr. Schibur:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to thank you for your two letters of 27 July 1960, enclosing copies of your story on CIA.

We both enjoyed reading your story in this instance, as in previous ones. Mr. Dulles and I both appreciate your statement that I was helpful to your staff in the preparation of this article.

Your expression of thanks is appreciated by Mr. Dulles and myself. It has been a pleasure to be of assistance to your JOURNAL.

Sincerely,

/S/ S. J. Grogan
